Episode 3 : « The Power of Clocks and Calendars » with Michelle Bastian

jeudi 29 janvier 2026

Hosts and Guests : Michel Alhadeff-Jones (Executive Director, Sunkhronos Institute, Switzerland) - Keri Facer (Professor of Educational and Social Futures, University of Bristol, UK) - Michelle Bastian (Senior Lecturer in Environmental Humanities, University of Edinburgh, UK)

Summary : In this episode, Michelle Bastian, a leading scholar in the field of critical time studies, reflects with Michel and Keri on how timekeeping plays a critical role in the way we think and act in relation to environmental issues. Together, they discuss how clocks contribute to power dynamics and social injustices, and what it takes—individually and collectively—to envision, live through, and regulate the plural temporalities and rhythms that shape life on Earth.
